L’Oréal USA for Women in Science Program - Applications Open

The L’Oréal USA For Women in Science fellowship program honors female scientists at a critical stage in their careers with grants of $60,000 each. Since 2003, we’ve awarded 70 postdoctoral women scientists over $3.5 million in grants. We’re seeking five exceptional female scientists looking to advance their research and serve as role models for the next generation of girls in STEM.

Applications for the 2018 L’Oréal USA For Women in Science program are due by February 2, 2018.

- Application Flyer
- Application FAQ
- FWIS Program Fact Sheet

Candidates are selected from a variety of fields including the life and physical/material sciences, technology (including computer science), engineering, and mathematics. Candidates must have completed their PhD and have started in their postdoctoral position by the application deadline.

The application and more information about the L’Oréal USA For Women in Science program can be found at www.lorealusa.com/forwomeninscience.

Center for the Humanities and Public Sphere Call for Proposals

The Center for the Humanities and the Public Sphere is pleased to announce its call for proposals for 2017-2018. These programs will be supported by the Robert and Margaret Rothman Endowment for the Humanities, the Humanities Fund, the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation and the Tedder Endowed Research Award in the Humanities. The Center encourages proposal submissions from faculty (and, in relevant instances, graduate students and staff) from disciplines across the humanities at the University of Florida.

Each announcement below includes one or two links with information outlining the application procedures. Any queries about these initiatives may be sent to the Humanities Center Interim Director Dr. Barbara Mennel. Completed proposals should submitted through online submission.

More information can be found at http://www.humanities.ufl.edu/proposals.html.

Postdoc Editors Association

The Office of Postdoctoral Affairs is pleased to announce the creation of the University of Florida’s Postdoctoral Editors Association (UF-PEA), a service to help postdocs who seek to improve English grammar and writing style. The UF-PEA is comprised of postdoc volunteers from multiple colleges across the University who will offer preliminary review of manuscripts, grant applications, posters, slides and other scholarly presentations. While this service will be most useful to postdocs who speak English as a second language, the service is free and open to all postdocs at UF. Our editors will provide feedback on structure and style of writing, but refrain from commenting on scholarship which is best honed by interactions between the postdoc and their mentor. UF-PEA will facilitate higher level postdoc-mentor interactions by reducing time spent on basic writing needs.
